Mr. Hoover Sees Mr. Sloan
What Fitzsimmons Did
A New Secret Plane
Ford Surprises Berlin

Mr. Hoover Sees Mr. Sloan
The business situation with Mr. P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors. With tens of thousands of skilled employees, a payroll and agencies that cover the United States, Mr. Sloan possesses unusually exact knowledge of conditions.
He does not allow our country to discourage him is an important new 12-cylinder engine, extending the range of travel to cover the eight-cylinder and 16-cylinder classes.

EVERYTHING PASSES, and is soon men will be asking,
"What did Fitzsimmons do?
How did he do it?" and "What will go to prices not known before."
Nobody knows what ultimate values will be in this country.
You will see land sell at $100 a square foot, $15,000,000 an acre. Terrible thought for earnest taxpayers.

ONCE THE Australian fighter, Robert Fitzsimmons, was knocked out by Peter Maher, Irish.
The referee counted nine. Fitzsimmons told about it: "I lay there back half dreaming. Suddenly I said to myself: 'I'll bet I can't dream at all. I am in a daze and I have been knocked out.' I jumped up, hit Peter Maher one time and he didn't come to for an hour."

That's what prosperity will do to the slump after the referee, Mr.
Maher, has counted a little while longer.

Meanwhile, the wise will buy things while they are cheap.
AN ARMY PLANE, the secrets of its construction carefully guarded, was submitted to, and endured successfully, the savage tests over Marshall Field on Long Island yesterday. Pilots looking on, kept at a distance from the secretly built plane, said it was "literally banged about the sky for more than an hour, like a football kicked about the field."

Powered with power on, at a rate of 50 miles an hour, the pilot keeping perfect control at all times, under all conditions.

PRESIDENT HOOVER has concentrated attention on aviation equipment, procuring double the preparation for experimental purposes.

One result is the development of a "cock" over the engine, that adds another hour to the speed of any airplane using it.

The fact that the President, an engineer, is personally and intensely interested in aviation development is important news.

MILLIONS of Americans would be delighted to read from the President a statement of this kind:
"On such a date, a United States airplane will leave Washington for the Atlantic, fly over London, Paris, Berlin, Moscow, Constantinople, cross the Bosphorus, land without stopping, land in the new Turkish capital, be of weather or any condition."

That would be a fine advertisement.

FIRST ICE OF SEASON FOUND HERE TODAY

Temperature Takes 42-Degree
Drop in Marion To Fall Below Freezing.

CLEVELAND HAS SNOWFALL

Western States in Grip of Near Zero Weather as Blizzard Approaches.

Freezing temperatures and frost borne by winds from the blizzard zones of the northwest yesterday caused a 42-degree drop in temperature here, and continued cold was forecast for tonight and Sunday as the result of the cold wave which hit the state yesterday.

The temperature in Marion dropped to two degrees below the freezing point last night, the coldest it has been this fall. The high yesterday was 72. Temperatures a year ago today ranged from a 34 low to 70.

Cleveland Has Snow
Thin sheets of ice on puddles left by yesterday morning's rain were reported this morning here, while at Cleveland snow flurries, accompanied by a 40-mile wind, continued for a 12-minute period. The temperature at Cleveland, however, was 33 degrees, one point above freezing and three points above the Marion temperature.

The sudden drop in temperature last night made topcoats and overcoats popular, while fur coats also were taken from the moth balls.
Other sections of the state were buffeted by sharp winds that made the cold more intense.

Fair skies prevailed in central, southern and western Ohio during the night and the first heavy frost of the season was recorded.

Little crop damage was expected since farmers had been forewarned and took precautionary measures.
Approaching winter today threatened renewed attacks in the trans-Mississippi area, according to Associated Press dispatches.

Montana, which enjoyed a brief respite yesterday, Wyoming, and Idaho stood in the path of the preaged thrust. Montana's rains of yesterday turned to snow flurries as freezing temperatures held the state in its grasp last night.

Nears Zero Mark
A minimum of 10 degrees above zero was recorded at Havre with the mercury still falling. Wyoming fared but little better. Yellowstone Park recording 16 above.

Snow ranging from a trace to three feet in the mountains blanketed northern Idaho as

PROFESSOR OF YALE DEFENDS PROHIBITION

Irving Fisher Declares Public Misled Concerning Benefits of Dry Law.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Professor Irving Fisher of Yale said today drinking habits decreased 50 to 90 per cent since prohibition.

Speaking over a National Broadcasting Co. chain under the auspices of the National Grange, he asserted prohibition was much more a success than the public had been led to believe.

"I can become a still greater success—is, in fact, becoming so, according to the observations of the prohibition administration," he added.

The public, he maintained, has been deceived through unfair presentation of statistics and through loss of perspective—forgetting the drunkenness prevalent before 1918.
"Let them read 'Ten Nights in a Bar Room,'" he suggested.

Fisher said 153 statistical studies on such subjects as divorce, vice, accidents, poverty and delinquency had with a few exceptions, shown a 35 per cent improvement to have taken place since the institution of national prohibition.

"Of course," he said, "some of the improvement is due to other causes.
But the big improvement, which ways came with prohibition. This can scarcely be a mere coincidence.
There are too many such coincidences."

EMPLOYMENT AID OUTLINED

Hoover Takes Steps To Increase Effectiveness of Nationwide Program.

APPOINTS COMMITTEE

Stresses Importance of Cooperation by States; Praises Efforts in Ohio.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Government measures for reducing unemployment will be given increased effectiveness to meet the prospect of increased suffering this winter, President Hoover, following a meeting with his cabinet yesterday, announced he had formed a committee, composed of six cabinet members and Governor Meyer of the federal reserve board, to draw up a program for continuing in strengthened form the federal employment activities.

"As a nation," the president said,
"we must prevent hunger and cold to those of our people who are in honest difficulties."

General Plan Outlined
The government will seek to increase direct federal employment in public works, but the emphasis of the presidential program will be placed on cooperation with the governors and employment organizations in regional measures for relief, and consultation with the principal industries on methods for keeping up their output and their employment.

Mr. Hoover stressed particularly the importance of state effort and praised the initiative displayed by several commonwealths in meeting their problems. He pointed out the government had maintained organized efforts to increase employment for the past 10 months with considerable success, while state agencies established at the same time already had shown fine results.

"The cabinet committee will further discuss these conditions with governors and state agencies and will again seek the cooperation of

HOLD PERRY SUSPECT

HARRISON, Ark., Oct. 18.— Search along the elusive trail of George (Jiggs) Perry, Milwaukee phantom lover, today led into northwestern Arkansas, where an uncommunicative prisoner was held in jail, suspected of being the fugitive. Frankly puzzled, and made cautious by two previous false identifications in this state, Boone county officers sought to learn through questioning if the prisoner is Perry, whom authorities accuse of slaying one of "five or six wives."

STATE GRANGE LEADERS HERE FOR MEETING

Executive Committee Members and Other Officers Discuss Convention Plans.

ATTEND POMONA SESSION

Farm Bureau Members from District To Assemble Here
Monday

Plans of local grange officials for the 1930 state grange convention here in December were to come up for discussion when the executive meeting of the state organization met at Hotel Harding today.

The regular meeting of the executive group, usually held in Columbus, was brought to this city to enable the committee to become acquainted with accommodations for the various sessions of the convention.

State Master Here

The executive committee, headed by state master Walter F. Kirk of Port Clinton, consists of John Cunningham of Gambier, Vernon E. Grouse of North Lima, Paul McNish of Burton, Louis J. Taber of Columbus, and Harry A. Canton of Coshocton.

Other state officials of the Grange attending the meeting were C. A. Dyer of Columbus, state overseer, J. W. Fitcher of Hamilton, state lecturer, W. C. Vanderbark of Zanesville, state secretary, and Harry L. Fox of Salem, managing editor of the Ohio State Grange Monthly.

To Inspect Halls

One of the important items of the program of the grange heads today was an inspection of halls and auditoriums available for use by the organization when it holds its annual convention in Marion in December. The meeting is expected to bring more than 4,000 grangers and farm leaders from all parts of the state.

Last night the Grange leaders met with the county Pomona organization which was entertained by the Kirkpatrick Grange.

The meeting here is the first of two important farm meetings to be held here today and Monday. Next week more than 400 Farm Bureau members are to meet at the Hotel Harding for a district session in connection with the state-wide observance of Farm Bureau week.

To Drop Ohio Charges

Against Emmet McBride

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Emmet McBride, brother of F. Scott Mc-Bride, head of the Anti-Saloon League of America, will not be extradited to St. Louis, O., to answer a charge of issuing worthless checks, according to police.

St. Louis officials telegraphed suggesting that McBride be released since Ohio was unwilling to pay extradition costs, police said last night.

Washington police, however, will continue to investigate complaints that McBride issued worthless checks here.

Mansfield No Longer Classed as "Twin City"

By The Associated Press
MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 18.—
The government census figures are wrong as far as Mansfield and Waukegan, Ill., are concerned. The cities were tied in the 1930 census with 33,434 but officials here discovered an error in favor of Waukegan.

When enumerators were here they counted Mr. and Mrs. R.
F. Donaldson and their two children as residents of Mansfield. There is where the error occurred. The family was on a long visit here and returned to their home in Waukegan for the opening of the fall school term, as Mr. Donaldson is athletic director of schools there. Mansfield has four fewer than the government listed and Waukegan has four more than shown.

BELIEVE BLAST CAUSED BY GAS

Garment Plant Wrecked as

SET $1,500,000 AS DAMAGE

Investigation Continues with Probers Inclined To Drop Sabotage Theory.

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 18.— Fire and police authorities today continued their investigation of the explosion which virtually wrecked the 12-story Garment Capital building and injured 43 persons here yesterday, but were inclined to believe the blast was an accident rather than sabotage, as was first thought.

Meanwhile, the 43 injured passenger and garment makers were reported recovering.

While sabotage at first was suspected, as the investigation progressed the authorities leaned toward conviction the explosion was caused by the accidental ignition of illuminating gas, which they said had been seeping through the building for weeks.

The estimate of damage, increasing with completion of surveys, mounted to $1,500,000. Originally it was $1,000,000. Insurance underwriters declared the building alone was damaged to the extent of $800,000.

Fire and police officers discovered many workers in the building recently had complained of nausea.

No Weaklings

(Will Rogers Special)
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Oct.
18.—Just passed by one of our fine country clubs out here and there was a big crowd there. It was the women's golf championship of America.

We used to think going to see women play golf would be like going to see men croquet, but say, there is nothing effeminate about this golf thing as played by these champion women.

Say, what a bunch of channel swimmers they are! I would hate to beat one of them to a parking space.

They just lay that innocent little ball down, grit their teeth and swing like a woodchopper, and it takes one of our modern men in mighty good physical condition to even walk where it goes to.

Miniature golf might be all right for men, but not for this humorously called weaker sex.

Yours,

Will Rogers

Will Says That It Is War, Rather Than Prosperity, Just Around the Corner for All European Nations

Russia, Germany and Italy Kicking Up Awful Mess at Present.

BY WILL ROGERS
WELL all I know is just what I read in the Papers. There is some pretty big stuff in the papers nowadays, but it's kinder under cover. Did you ever kinder stop to figure it out, this old World of ours as a whole is not sitting so pretty just at the present time. Did you know that there is an awful lot of parts of Europe that is just sitting on what the old time Orator used to call a Powder Keg? Well it is.

We can't pick up a paper that from one to a hundred don't prophesy that Prosperity is just around the corner. But let me tell you that war is nearer around the corner than prosperity is. I don't mean so much for us right here. But I mean over in Europe. That Russia is kicking up an awful lot of dust and Germany is harping of a terrible lot of dissatisfaction. That Hitler has got em all stirred up over there. He made a speech last week in which he advocated the breaking of the Versailles Treaty. He said that it was made by a lot of old men, who most of them were about ready to die, and now here was a lot of young men grown up and they had to carry all this burden, for which they were not directly to blame, and that it was only a matter of time till they wouldn't do it, they would say, "Well come on France, what are you going to do about it? We can't be any worse off if you come in and take over our Country than we are now."

Like Stray Terriers
Then those little Balkan Nations, they are like a little mess of stray Terriers anyhow, they just as well be fighting as like they are. This has been about the longest they have ever been between wars. I see the other day where Russia was just on the verge of invading Roumania. They have always had it in for them and figured they only had to take a couple of days rations and rounds of ammunition and go over and take that Country anyhow.

Russia and Poland are always on the verge of war. I remember when I was over in both countries in the summer of 26 why they were growling at each other like a couple of Fat Prima Donas on the same Opera bill.

Then Italy is ranting around down there trying to pick up some more Country and outlet for their population. France is watching them with an Eagle eye all the time, and that's just what Mussolini wants, he had rather worry France than anything. France feels that she would have no trouble whipping them, but if she went down there to do it, Germany would take that opportunity and get at them and she just don't want to have to take the chance. Then the Czechoslovakians feel kinda hemmed in down their way, and of course the Turks, there is nothing that like a Turk so much as peace.

Watching Reputations
Austria they just been so bad off since the last war that they know there would be no way that war wouldn't be welcome to them. Bulgaria has started all the rest of them, her and Serbia, and they don't want to lose their reputations, they want to go down in history as having started all the big ones.

All this whole mess have no more love for each other than a litter of Hyenas, they either lost or gained territory during the last war, and they feel those that did gain that in another war they could grab off even more, and the ones that lost can't see how they could possibly make that mistake again, and that if given a chance to play the same hole over again they could make it pay the next time. I try to read all that old World Diplomatics write over there, and there is not a line of it that is not in regard to another war, they just can't write a prescription without predicting what will happen in the next great war, their whole minds is on it, and from all that I read of them there is no two that seem to give anywhere near the same possible line up, it's like the National and American League if when time come to play the World series they would just take all the players from all the Clubs in their League and then choose up and play the other side.

No one knows where the thing will start or with who, no one knows how the line-up will be, for they don't know who will be fighting who. Some of them that hate Russia like poison will want to join her on account of her strength. They will all want to wait and see who looks like the winner. They did that in the last war, quite a few said out waiting for the best offer. Lots of pretty smart men think that is one of the biggest contributing factors to our present state of economic unrest, is that all big finance is afraid of what will happen in the near future, and they don't know where it will end.

A large number of friends and

WARS AND RUMORS OF WARS

That's why everybody is hanging on to what they got. There is more in the wind than just our little local condition over here. We got as much as we ever had, there is just as much money, as many to eat, and as many to feed, as many to buy. But still our conditions are uncertain. Why? Just because it's things outside our own land that is worrying em. They know that things are not right all over the World. Look at South America. When during our lifetime has there been as many disturbances at one time? No Sir the whole thing is world wide, we are effected by it less than anyone.

If we keep our nose clean and don't start yapping about somebody else's honor, or what our moral obligations are, we might create it. But it's going to take better Statesmanship than we have been favored with heretofore. But the way we are now we are mighty lucky to have nothing but a little depression that is bothering us. But think what those other poor Devils are up against.

Prosperity and Religion

A SERMONETTE

BY REV. H. E. WILLIAMSON
Pastor Oakland Evangelical Church

VARIOUS opinions are being advanced regarding the "hard times" that are upon us. One says "overproduction," another "tariff," another "war debts" and still others have other causes to present. Roger Babson commands the respect of the business world and with good reason; few men in our day, says the Sunday school times, have studied, analyzed and interpreted business facts and conditions as he has. Speaking at a meeting of the general board of the national council of the Y. M. C. of New York recently he said: "Business depressions are caused by dissipation, dishonesty and disobedience to God's will—a general collapse of moral character. Statistics show this plainly. They also show how business depressions are cured. They are cured by moral awakening, spiritual revival and the rehabilitation of righteousness."

Babylon, Greece and Rome fell because of their sins. Morry in his "Outline of Roman History" says: "The decay of religion and morality among the Roman people was a fundamental cause of their weakness and ruin."

Old Israel in Bible times suffered times of depression, famine, pestilence and trouble and always, scripture tells us, the cause was their sin. When they repented and turned to God confessing and forsaking their sins He forgave and renewed their material prosperity. God still rules the world. Man is dependent upon Him for daily bread. God controls seasons, blesses crops and provides for all of man's needs. He sometimes withholds material blessings when man disobeys and becomes selfish and independent until he comes back and acknowledges his Creator. If sin has ruined nations in the past, will it not ruin us today if we let it rule our hearts? Look how we have fared here in this land of the free and land of blessed God.

What can be done about it? Is there any hope of recovery from the sorry mess in which we find ourselves? Only one way; that is, that we come back to God, repent and turn away from our sins and be willing to walk in the ways of God.

Very true. It's the same with your provision for the future. Depends on the size of the systematic savings from your income.

Hallowe'en To Be Theme of Entertainment Here as Hostesses Plan Fall Events

MANY Marion hostesses will entertain strange guests during the next few weeks and residents abroad in the land will encounter characters of story book fame and popular screen, radio and comic strip folks. Hostesses planning informal social affairs at this time find novel and clever forms of entertainment for their guests and decorations may range from the colorful Hallowe'en shades to the spooky combinations of black and white. Little Red Ridinghood can easily find herself enjoying a pleasant evening with Amos and Andy or even Lena while desolate Uncle Bim will lay aside his grief for the moment and participate in the Hallowe'en festivities.

Church societies, Sunday school classes, social and dance clubs are taking advantage of the opportunity to vary their entertainment and already a number have announced their dates and plans for the Hallowe'en affairs.

AGENT'S OFFICE
The Big Four Route is a local business concern—a "citizen" of this town... your "neighbor."

It not only pays taxes on the property it owns here—your county gets its share of the taxes on the locomotives and cars which pass through.

Indeed, the very fact that the railroad is here makes everyone's property more valuable.

The Big Four, like other local leaders, does its part to build up this community... by seeking to locate new industries here—and by serving well the business already here.

This is sound policy—for the Big Four pros, as when the community prospers.

All in all, this railroad, which reaches into many states, is a pretty valuable corporate citizen of this town.

Just Things

—BY EDNA S. DUTTON—

Ghost Stories

W hat if someone revive the art of telling ghost stories? It may not be believed but it wasn't every one who could tell a good ghost story, what I mean the kind that sent you home so fast your feet never touched the ground and your pigtail stood out like the fenders on a new phaeton. There used to be some thrillers and always they seemed to have happened to some of the teller's relations. That, beyond the shadow of a doubt made the story better but was too unbecoming to the teller and his abiding place for the night. It may not have been so good for the nervous system, if one possessed one, but what training for a potential marathoner it afforded.

Conventions

T HERE are conventions and conventions but here's a tip, if you are invited to Cleveland for a convention, don't miss it. Of course some of the speakers may say something that will take the wind out of your sails, such as telling you to your very face that you look just like the folks in any other convention when your mirror told you you had that totally different look, or that your problems are no different than any other. But for royal entertainers, you have to hand it to the Cleveland folks. When the O. N. W. A. meets of course they do just what they do in any other convention, they talk shop, and how. The program committee sees to it that there is plenty of subjects to discuss but they also know something else and that is that no woman ever went into a strange town, big or little, that she didn't sneak out to visit the stores so this committee puts the cards on the table and takes time out for revealing midst the counters of intriguing and beguiling what not. The rest of the story is easy, the weekly stipend diminishes as though by magic so if you have seen in your wandering this week a gaunt looking lady of the press, there's a reason and she isn't dying either. (Loud applause from the merchants.)

Golf

B RIDGE which has had the call for popular entertainment for a flock of blue moons now has a little competition in the form of indoor midget golf. Hostesses with an eye for something different, find the idea tip top, all of which goes to show that every dog has his day and every cat his night.

The next meeting will be with Miss Cora Coey of Unacpher avenue.

FINDLAY ROUTS PRESIDENTS 48-0

Ashland Deadlocks Bucyrus Game 13-13 With Last Minute Score

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK
A LOT of things stood out in the battle with Findlay but a lot more were taken out, the latter referring to Harding men taken out of Findlay plays. When Findlay blocked a Harding man he was blocked. Make no mistake about that.

Dick Wright caused a lot of trouble during the game. This also in more ways than one. He caused Findlay trouble by the way he eluded their tacklers on his 56 yard dash and caused Harding trouble by reminding us that he is in his final year in Harding. He is one of the most valuable men in the Harding backfield.

Notwithstanding Wright's brilliant work on offense he committed several football "Merkies" on defense. He apparently forgot on several occasions that an offensive pass receiver should never be allowed to get between the defensive man and the defensive goal line. Well, maybe he'll remember it when we buck Bucyrus next Saturday.

"Bo" Guthrie relieved Eric Williams at the pivot post about the middle of the second period and played better football than at any time this season. Guthrie's work on defense was especially good. He should earn for himself a regular post if he continues to show as well.

Jack Hudson booted probably the longest kick of the year for Harding in the last period when he stood nearly at the farthest point in the end zone and kicked to Findlay's 40 yard line. The kick traveled nearly 70 yards counting the roll.

Bob Bush was injected into the fray despite an injured leg and gave a good account of himself. His leg seemed to hold him back somewhat, but he played a good game. He backed up the line better than anyone else in the lineup.

Harding seemed to be so awed by the presence of the Findlay bone crushers that they forgot all they ever learned about tackling. Bob Keller, a second string back made the only flying tackle for Harding during the game. It was a real direct result of a Harding back trying to stop a Findlay player by tackling his headgear.

Dick Beltz, brilliant Findlay back presented this writer with a nice compliment for Bill Jevans, fighting Harding guard. Beltz thinks Jevans has more fight than any man on the Harding team. And he's not far from right.

Bob Smith played an improved game at tackle although he also neglected to remember that an opponent's legs were meant to tackle and not his shoulders. He stopped a lot of plays for Findlay.

Houseworth played well for Harding on offense. His work while not sensational and not perfect was consistent. He crashed the line hard even though it did not give him much for his efforts.

Beltz also had a good word for the red-head Keller. He was very much distressed over the touchdown of which he was robbed later in the game when Keller refused to be shaken off. His adjectives concerning the manner in which Keller dragged him down led us to believe that maybe the brick-knapper really meant to stop the Findlay flash. He did attempt. That's one touchdown they didn't get.

HARDING OUTCLASSED BY INVADING TEAM; BELTZ; WRIGHT STAR

Brilliant Visiting Halfback Chalks Up 28 Points; Losers' Tackling Poor.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor, The Star

LED by a brilliantly performing halfback by the name of Dick Beltz, Findlay High school's warlords of the sod trumped the Harding High gridgers into the ground of Fairground field yesterday afternoon to defeat the Presidents, 48 to 0. The defeat by the Maize and Blue was the most decisive of five consecutive beatings absorbed thus far this season by the local team.

Harding was not in the game. Literally speaking at any stage. Once or twice they drove the ball deep into Findlay territory but the invaders quickly smothered any scoring attempt.

Harding elected to receive on the opening kickoff and carried the ball to near mid field before they were forced to punt because they could not crash the heavy Findlay forward wall. With Findlay in the possession of the oval the game turned into a veritable nightmare for the local gridgers. Dick Beltz immediately launched the first of a series of marauding dashes around right end, this one counting a total gain of 40 yards. He had the misfortune to have the initial run called back on account of one of his team mates being off sides but this apparently served merely as a signal to duplicate the feat.

He promptly tore off on another of his jaunts after a few minutes of deliberation during which time his cohorts picked up a few yards on some line bucks. The second spree netted him his first touchdown. He booted the pigskin squarely between the uprights from placement for the extra point.

Dick Wright, Harding's speed merchant, took the matter into his own hands when Beltz again kicked off to him on the goal line. After hovering around behind the interference of his partners for something like 25 yards he set out for himself and in a zig zag race up the field that left a horde of Findlay tacklers wondering if he might not be the reincarnation of Red Grange planted the ball on Findlay's 40 yard line.

ARGENTINE BATTLER DECISIONS KAPLAN IN TEN-ROUND CLASH

South American Fighter Rins String of Victories to Five Straight.

By International News Service
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Justo Suarez made it five in a row yesterday night by taking the decision in a six round fight with the Argentine battler, Kaplan. He got the decision at the end of 10 rounds that were the roughest ever he will encounter anywhere.

It wasn't a thriller in any sense for the simple reason that Kaplan elected to employ billy goat tactics. They were not beautiful nor were they anything that dancing master would use. Louis simply lowered his head, plowed in and held. He even went holding one better by forcing Suarez to the ropes and grabbing the strands behind Suarez's back.

It was a trick as old as tinsypes of Jim Mace, but it fooled Danny Ridge and a lot of others who might have thought that Kaplan was displaying the strength of a Sampan.

No easy target to hit, is Kaplan. He knew all about it five minutes after the bout started. Indeed he was utterly swamped in rushes and gloves in the first two rounds that he almost forgot to hit at all.

A right to the jaw in the third round brought blood to Kaplan's lower lip, and he rocked in electric flash as Suarez drove home with hard crashes to the jaw.

Kaplan was groggy in the sixth round, but try as he would, Justo couldn't tag him with a capsize blow. Suarez landed two corking left uppercuts to Kaplan's jaw in the seventh round.

In the dressing room after the bout, Suarez exhibited his right hand. It had been injured on Kaplan's head in the third round, he said. It was quite swollen.

day's own 44 yard line for a gain of 56 yards. A neat piece of running if any was turned in in the game.

His efforts were to no great avail however as the Harding back field could no more penetrate the Findlay forward wall than it could ram its head through a stone wall. Clay punted and Findlay again started one of its pile driving attacks toward the Harding goal. About two smashes at the line of the Presidents and Findlay got tired of fooling around and gave the ball to Beltz again. He wasted no time but in a very efficient and effective manner gave Harding's defenses the "go by" as he chalked up a 70-yard sprint and another six point. He added the point from placement.

Harding made a supreme effort to stop Findlay when it again got possession of the ball in the first period but after a couple of successful attempts Beltz carried the ball across and booted the extra point to complete the score of 21 points for the opening quarter.

The second quarter was slightly better but still Beltz dominated the situation in a very convincing manner. He didn't score any points but he flipped a well directed forward heave into the arms of Hendricks who crossed the line. Beltz kicked the goal.

Success took advantage of some poor pass receiving by the Harding team late in the second period and snatched a Harding aerial and converted it into the fifth touchdown of the first half. Houseworth blocked the kick of Beltz and did a good job of it two ways. He saved a point against Harding and knocked himself out. He stuck it out 'till someone hit him again and finished the K.O. process. Bush too his place.

The ball saw sawed around the remainder of the half with neither team threatening the goal very seriously. Another Harding pass fell prey to Findlay's half backs early in the second half. Stevens snagged the pass and converted an intended gain for Harding into a six pointer for Findlay. Findlay backed the ball over for the point.

Wright Off Again
Dick Wright ripped off another of his sensations in this period when he carried the ball from Harding's 20 to its 48 yard line on an intercepted pass. Aside from this one long gain Harding did well to pick up an occasional few yards either through the line or off the tackles. Findlay scored by far the most yardage but failed for the first time to muster sufficient punch to score again.

With a flock of players ranging everywhere from the second to about the sixth teams playing in the fourth period, Findlay managed to sneak over another half dozen points to make its total 48 before calling it a day. Both teams played with a large number of substitutes. The only reason Harding used more was because they had more. Findlay used 28 players during the game and no one has found out yet how many Harding used. The invaders were dangerously near the Harding goal line when the gun ended the game.

BATTLES IN EAST TO DRAW LARGE CROWDS
Fordham Tackles Holy Cross in Hope of Retaining Clean Slate.
By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The football stadia of the east drew thousands of spectators today. Soldiers Field, Boston, was the scene of the biggest spectacle as two unbeaten teams, Harvard and Army, matched brain and brawn. Brown's great defensive outfit hoped to stop Yale and Albion Booth at New Haven while Cornell invaded Princeton to battle Bill Roper's somewhat hapless Tigers. New York university and Navy tackled intersectional opponents, Missouri and Duke respectively, while two of the strongest contenders for eastern honors, Syracuse and Pittsburgh, had a duel at Syracuse. Fordham, unbeaten since 1928, hoped to continue its streak at Worcester against another undefeated eleven, Holy Cross, while at Hanover, N. H., Columbia hoped for the best against Dartmouth's high-powered army. Temple entertained Washington and Jefferson and Boston College visited Villanova at Philadelphia while Lafayette attempted to halt unbeaten Penn State at Easton. Georgetown hoped to avenge the 7-0 beating it took last year from western Maryland at Baltimore. Lehigh had a study foe at Bethlehem in Gettysburg, conqueror of Villanova.

Howard Fitzgerald, Wichita Falls, Tex., outfielder, has been with the same club six years, or longer than any other Texas league player.

Buckeyes After Third Straight Victory Today

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—Seeking its third consecutive victory over Michigan or its sixth in 27 games, Ohio State defended its horsehoe stadium today against the undefeated Wolverines.

Both teams were granted even chances of victory despite Michigan's 14 to 13 triumph over Purdue, the 1929 Big Ten champions, or Ohio's 19 to 2 loss to Northwestern last week in its first conference defeat.

Buckeye rushing power was matched against Michigan deception and punting ability, especially the former of which Ohio is always in dread. The weather prediction of partly cloudy and continued cold gave prospect of the first real "football Saturday" of the season here.

A crowd of 72,000 spectators had purchased tickets, fulfilling the tradition of Ohio-Michigan games for playing to capacity.

Six of Ohio's probable starters were sophomores as compared with four for Michigan. Four Buckeyes were playing against Michigan for the last time and three Wolves enjoyed a similar experience, giving Michigan greater experience for the day.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 18.—The national championship hopes of two of the outstanding eleven of the country, the reformed Ramblers of Notre Dame and the Brawny Scots of Carnegie Tech, were tossed into the mill today.

Defeat for either virtually meant ruined seasons, for both aim at national laurels. Each had two previous victories and the winner was expected to be decided only after one of the most bitterly fought games of the campaign.

The contest was a battle of wits, also between two of the craftiest coaches in the game, Knute Rockne of Notre Dame and Judge Walter Steffen of Carnegie Tech.

Notre Dame relied on a still developing line and a host of great ground gaining backs and reserves, while the Skibo chances rested on a smart veteran line, and a versatile set of backs.

About 30,000 fans were expected in the new brick bowl.

By The Associated Press
BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The battle of Harvard and Army at the Harvard stadium aroused unusual interest today. Neither team has received a real test in three earlier games. Harvard won a 10-0 favorite.

Army brought a new mode of attack, taught by its new coach, Major Ralph Sasse, a disciple of Glenn Warner.

Harvard, its first eleven riddled by injuries, still was able to put a powerful team on the field. Charles Devens, star back, and George Talbot, veteran guard, were among the injured regulars.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 18.—Northwestern's jinx-ridden eleven and Illinois' men of mystery today came to Memorial stadium to decide which should continue in the struggle for western conference championship.

Encouraged by rapid improvement during the week and the knowledge that the Wildcats were not at full strength, the Illini were just a little more than hopeful of winning. Northwestern, handicapped by the losses including Hank Bruner, not to mention the added burden of vaccinations, was just a shade less than confident.

Max Schmeling for the heavyweight last night knocked out the tough batter of the Pacific coast, Tiger Johnny Klein, after one minute and 40 seconds of the second round of a scheduled 10-round contest.

Francis "Shanty" Hogan, New York Giant catcher, was stabbed but not seriously following an altercation with a negro. The negro first tried to beat Hogan with a baseball bat.

HEIDELBERG BEATS LUTHERAN TEAM 13-7

Student Princes Continue on Way to Title; Miami Defeats Denison.

BY LATHROP MACK

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—Heidelberg university astonished the state by defeating Ohio Wesleyan two weeks ago, caused no surprise by trouncing Wittenberg college at Springfield, 12 to 7 last night, and now seems to be on its way to a clear record for 1936.

All the Student Princes have to do is defeat Toledo, Ohio Northern, Akron, Adrian and John Carroll, and they have already proved themselves to be one of Ohio's really good teams of the season. The rest of the season should be a romp by comparison with the past three games.

Heidelberg looked great against Wittenberg last night, took advantage of its scoring opportunities like a championship team and won decisively. Wittenberg's magnificent line spooled two Heidelberg parades, holding once on its three-yard line and again on its 20. And Heidelberg had to resort to other means to score.

These proved sufficient. Quarterback Billy Price of Wittenberg fumbled Brandy's punt in the second period and left end Abe Yourist of Heidelberg covered the ball on Witt's 33-yard line. Line plays gained ten yards and Dwight Hiney then passed to Charley Wilcox for the first touchdown. Wilcox, a sophomore flash, and repined Hank Seale only a minute previously. Hiney delayed his throw while he dodged a tackler and waited for Wilcox to lose Peterson of Wittenberg, which he did.

Blocked Kick To Score
Merle Hutson, Heidelberg's all-Ohio tackle, blocked one of Plummer's punts in the third period and Brandy snatched it up, running 35 yards for the second touchdown.

Wittenberg scored after the final gun on an 80-yard march with Brewster doing most of the ball-carrying and all the scoring. A pass was ruled complete on Heidelberg's one-yard line as the final gun barked but Witt had one more play and made good on a line plunge.

There were other thrills in yesterday's games, however. Miami opened the Buckeye conference season by whitening Denison down, 19 to 6. Cincinnati and Ohio Wesleyan play the second Buckeye conference battle today.

Ashland, Capital, Muskingum and Bowling Green continued on their undefeated way. Ashland was held to the surprising score of 12 to 0 by Marietta but Boyer and Riley could not be entirely bottled. Capital won its first victory in four games over Otterbein, 13 to 0, on a 30-yard march and a long run by Bridewester.

Muskie Turn Trick
Muskingum did what Ohio University could not do—beat West Liberty Normal of West Virginia, 14 to 12, by scoring early. Bowling Green assumed undisputed leadership of the Northwestern conference with a 13 to 6 victory over Defiance but Findlay won its first game from Toledo, 6 to 0, and also has yet to be defeated.

All of these games went accordingly to form. If the Heidelberg-Wittenberg game had been considered an even affair, but there were upsets. Xavier was caught unaware by Centre of Kentucky and lost 6 to 0, while Dayton bowed to Oglethorpe by the same score. John Carroll rolled up 39 points against Adrian, as expected.

Today's games were all secondary to the Ohio-Michigan tilt, but several were nevertheless important. Ohio University invaded West-ern Reserve with another pasting ready for the Red Cats. Akron and Wooster settled their annual differences in a game expected to be as close as any. Ohio Wesleyan figured to swamp Cincinnati but not as badly as last year. Mount Union battled demoralized Oberlin while Case hoped to continue its uninterrupted way against Kent.

Ohio, Michigan, Carnegie Tech Battles Head Card

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Your middle-western football fan today could pick his choice from another scheduled offering the star-d-out game of the national bill—Carnegie Tech's invasion of Notre Dame's new stadium—as well as critical contests in the progress of the Big Ten championship struggle.

The Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech game appeared to be anybody's. The only certain feature being that of a tremendous battle. The Skibos were given an edge in condition, while Notre Dame had a host of reserves on which to bank if necessary.

Of the Big Ten games, the Michigan-Harvard clash was the most Matthews Skirts Right End for Tying Touchdown; Rybolt Misses Kick.

BY BILL M'KEE

Ashland Times-Gazette

A FLAMING uprising in the last quarter gave Ashland High a tie, 13-13, with Bucyrus here last night in the league's first night game. Trailing 13 to 7 and outplayed for three quarters, Ashland looked hopelessly beaten. But a garrison finish let the team escape its first defeat.

Bucyrus scored twice in the second quarter. Miller, guard, was pulled out of the line to swing the ends, the first time for 10 yards, and the second for five, for both touchdowns. Inside tackle dashes by Talbot put the ball in scoring position twice. Ashland was offside and the second point awarded.

Taking the ball midfield late in the fourth quarter, Dolby's plunging and a pass attack gave Ashland first down on the Bucyrus three yard line. Dolby plunged for the touchdown. Bucyrus was offside and the point awarded. Again gaining possession of the ball in midfield, Ashland unleashed a pass midfield. Ashland unleashed a pass midfield, coupled with Matthews' 16-yard dash, put the ball on the Bucyrus four-yard line. After two plunges Matthews skirted right end for the touchdown. Rybolt's kick just missed the bar. The gun sounded at the succeeding kickoff.

Matthews broke away for a 77 yard dash in the third quarter, but Bucyrus took the ball on downs on their one-foot line.

Iban-Ohio and Northwestern-Illinois meetings absorbed the interest. The Wolverines were out to add the Buckeyes to their list of conference conquests, but were confronted by a powerful, though somewhat inexperienced eleven.

Northwestern, a standout for the title two weeks ago, today was an uncertain proposition. The Wildcats, hounded by misfortune in the form of ineligibility and illness, and in the process of organization, faced a tartar in the green, but readily improving Illini.

Minnesota had Indiana as its initial Big Ten opponent at Minneapolis, and was favored to win comfortably, while Purdue also was expected to emerge successful from its comeback attempt against Iowa. The game was Iowa's only one in Big Ten competition, and the Hawkeyes were out to shoot the works for victory.

Wisconsin's surprising eleven had a powerful intersectional foe, Pennsylvania, as its guest at Madison. Both teams had displayed great power in early engagements, and no one was willing to pick the winner. Chicago's chances of defeating Florida, one of the ranking eleven of the south, appeared slim.

Cooking School Record Broken; 4,000 Attend

Attendance at Closing Session Passes 1,100 Mark; Mrs.
Emily M. Lutz and Assistant Leave Marion for Steubenville; To Conduct Class in Akron.

More than 1,100 women attended the closing session of The Star's sixth annual cooking school Friday afternoon in The Star auditorium. The number brought the attendance for the four days to more than 4,000, breaking the record for the school. Between 150 and 200 children were entertained in the nursery during the four-day session by Mrs. G. E. Waddell and her assistants. Sixty-seven children were cared for in the nursery yesterday afternoon.

The session brought to a close one of the most successful schools sponsored by The Star. That the business of homemaking is of keen interest to women was shown by the large attendance and the promptness with which the guests arrived for each of the sessions.

Mrs. Emily M. Lutz, lecturer, won her audience with her pleasing personality from the time she left her post behind the kitchen table and stepped to the edge of the platform the first afternoon, and her timely hints and suggestions together with her interesting talks on her demonstrations each day were cordially received. She was assisted by Mrs. Metcalf who entertained at each session with a pleasing vocal number.

A feature of the closing session was the parade of the children from the nursery designated by Mrs. Lutz as the jewels of the home.

Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Metcalf will go from Marion to Steubenville, Akron and Detroit where they will conduct schools.

Field Trials in Readiness for Opening Event Monday

Preparations have been completed for the annual combined field trials west of Marion. The Miami Valley club has donated the use of the room at the Southern Ohio dog associations. The trials, which are scheduled to commence Oct. 20 and last about 10 days, are being held here through the efforts of O. H. Nemeier, state game protector and the Marion Chamber of Commerce. The trials will be held in the region of Agosta. The Southern Ohio trials were held here for the first time last year and the Miami Valley transferred its trials here this year for the first time.
Both associations have been holding the annual events in the southern part of Indiana for nearly 20 years.

Nemeier announced today that everything is in readiness for a bigger and more enthusiastic attendance this year than last. The cooperation of the farmers and other interested individuals promises to make the affair the most successful in the history of the events. The grounds are in perfect condition and there is an abundance of birds for the trials, Nemeier stated.

Aside from the trials there will

These are the days when your rugs need the extra protection of Hoover cleaning

The soot and grime of winter, the grit and mud of the streets, not only increase your cleaning burdens but increase the wear on rugs.

Now and during the coming months, you need more than ever the extra protection which only Hoover cleaning can give—the extra thoroughness of its dirt removal—the extra speed and ease of its operation.

The Hoover removes more dirt per minute than any other cleaner—requires less human energy for its operation—gets out embedded grit which only The Hoover's beating principle, Positive Agitation, can effectively remove.

We want you to see how great a difference Hoover cleaning makes in your work and in the appearance of your rugs. That is why we offer you a home trial, without obligation, of either of the two New Hoovers. Simply telephone. Only $6.25 down; balance monthly. Liberal allowance for your old cleaner.
